Under Old Business

Plans for the upcoming “wine and cheese” at Cindy Barnard’s home were discussed at length including: food and beverage responsibilities, communication points, and background slideshow.

Terry passed out the revised communication points. The librarians plan to post the points on the TFL website. Discussion continued to clarify certain ideas. In response to a question, Christie said the TCS library is there primarily to support the curriculum. The TFL is for reading pleasure and exploration and for supplementing resources, including access to library databases.

The committee discussed plans for various publicity ideas.

The ice cream social will be Thursday August 16th at the library between 6:30 and 7:30p.m.

Too much old business.
